

11:00 Central Mississippi Valley
John Whittaker—Discussant

[293] SYMPOSIUM ■ ANCESTRAL NATIVE AMERICAN ARCHAEOLOGY OF
THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA

Room: Franciscan CD

Time: 8:00 AM - 11:45 AM

Chairs: Alex DeGeorgey and Mark Hylkema

Participants:

- 8:00 Philip Kaijankoski and Jack Meyer—A Land Transformed:
Holocene Sea-Level Rise, Landscape Evolution, and Human Occupation in the San Francisco Bay Area
- 8:15 Edward Luby and Kent G. Lightfoot—Diachronic Changes in the Shell Mounds of the San Francisco Bay: A Case Study of Ellis
Landing (CA-CCO-295)
- 8:30 Alan Leventhal and Rosemary Cambra—Shellmounds of the San Francisco Bay as Sacred Landscapes
- 8:45 Karen Gardner, Eric J. Bartelink, Antoinette Martinez, Alan
Leventhal and Rosemary Cambra—Feeding the Ranks:
Correlating Social Organization and Dietary Patterns at the Yukisma Mound (CA-SCL-38)
- 9:00 Adrian Whitaker and Brian Byrd—An Ideal Free Settlement
Perspective on Residential Positioning in the San Francisco
Bay Area
- 9:15 Mark Hylkema—Tule Balsa Boats and the San Francisco Bay
Economy
- 9:30 Dwight Simons, Tom Wake and Alex DeGeorgey—Fins,
Feathers and Furs: Fish, Bird, and Mammal Remains from a
Stege Mound Complex Site, CA-CCO-297
- 9:45 Alex DeGeorgey and Dwight Simons—Use of Faunal
Resources as Trade Commodities during the Late Period—
Evidence from a Stege Mound (CA-CCO-297)
- 10:00 Jack Broughton—Late Holocene Resource Depression in San Francisco Bay: Recent Research with Tule Elk, Sturgeon, and Waterfowl
- 10:15 Kenneth Gobalet and Robert Leidy—An Update of the Prehistoric Native American Fishery of San Francisco Bay
- 10:30 Melanie Beasley—Men at Work: Economic Complexity and Exploitation of Dietary Marine Protein Sources in the San Francisco Bay Area
- 10:45 Eric Bartelink, Jelmer Eerkens, Melanie Beasley and Karen
Gardner—Kroeber's Omnivore's Dilemma: Regional